Deity, Ruling Planet & Career Insights

Your nakshatra is presided over by Brahma, the creator god, gifting you with creativity, fertility, and the power to manifest desires. Worshipping or meditating upon Brahma can strengthen the positive qualities of Rohini in your life.

The ruling planet Moon influences your core nature with emotional intelligence, intuition, and nurturing ability. A well-placed Moon in your chart amplifies the best traits of Rohini, while afflictions may manifest as the challenges listed above.

Based on Rohini's influence, you have a natural aptitude for Arts, Agriculture, Beauty, Fashion, and Music. Your work style tends to be creative, luxurious, growth-oriented. These fields align with the energy of your birth nakshatra and can bring both professional success and personal fulfillment.

The auspicious name syllable (Akshar) for Rohini Pada 3 is "Vi". Names beginning with this syllable are believed to resonate with the positive vibrations of your birth nakshatra.

Personality & Compatibility Analysis

GANA (TEMPERAMENT)

Your Manushya Gana reflects a balanced, practical, and adaptable nature. You can navigate both spiritual and material worlds with ease. In relationships, you are compatible with all three Ganas. Manushya natives thrive in careers requiring diplomacy, negotiation, and human interaction.

NADI (HEALTH & ENERGY)

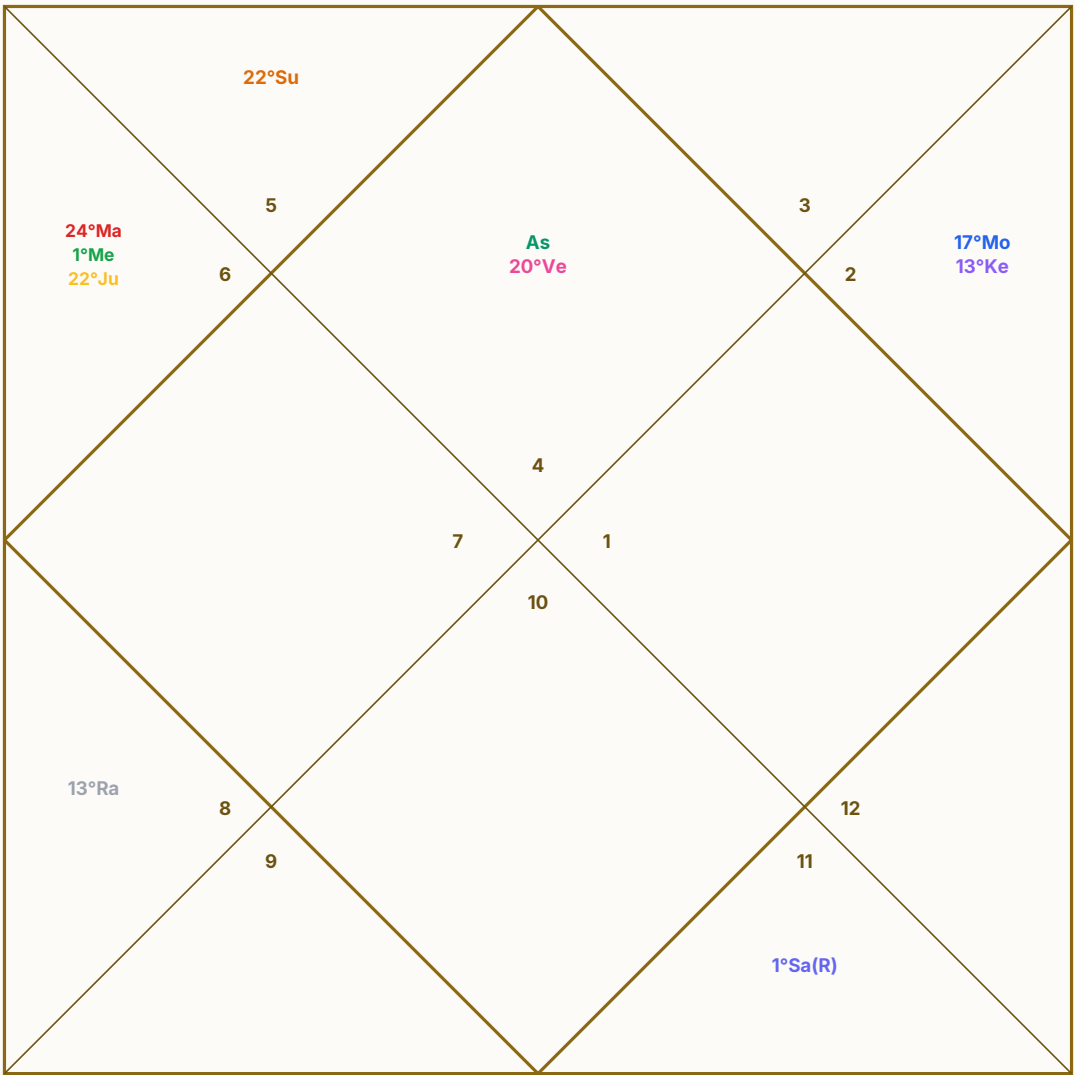

Your Antya (Kapha) Nadi governs stability, endurance, and nurturing. You tend to have a sturdy build, steady energy, and calm temperament. Health-wise, guard against weight gain, sluggishness, and respiratory issues. In Kundali matching, Nadi carries 8 points (highest) — same Nadi pairing should be avoided.

VARNA (LIFE ORIENTATION)

Shudra Varna indicates a hardworking, skilled, and service-oriented nature. You find fulfillment in hands-on work, helping others, and mastering practical skills. This Varna is drawn to craftsmanship, technology, healthcare, and skilled professions.

The Crab

Ruling Body: Moon

Cancer rising gives a deeply sensitive, emotionally intelligent, and nurturing personality. Ruled by the Moon, these natives experience life through the lens of feeling — their intuition is powerful and rarely wrong. The Crab's protective shell symbolizes their approach to the world: soft and vulnerable inside, with a tough exterior that shields them from emotional harm. In Vedic astrology, Karka Lagna is considered highly auspicious for family life, domestic happiness, and emotional wisdom. The Moon's influence makes them deeply attuned to the cycles of life.

Personality & Temperament

You feel everything deeply — both joy and sorrow wash through you with remarkable intensity. Your emotional intelligence is extraordinary; you can read a room's energy the moment you walk in and intuitively sense what others need. Memory is your superpower — you remember every kindness and every slight with vivid clarity. You are the person friends turn to in crisis because your empathy and practical care are unmatched. Your moods ebb and flow with the Moon's phases, giving your inner life a rich, ever-changing quality.

Career Inclination

Your empathetic nature and caring instinct suit healthcare, nursing, therapy, counseling, social work, childcare, hospitality, and the food industry. You also excel in real estate, property management, and any work connected to homes and family. Creative fields like writing, photography, and interior design channel your emotional depth beautifully. You make an outstanding team leader because people feel genuinely cared for under your guidance. Your intuition also serves you well in psychology and human resources.

Relationships & Compatibility

In love, you are tender, devoted, and create a deeply nurturing bond. You express affection through care — cooking for your partner, remembering small details, creating a warm and beautiful home together. You need emotional security and deep trust before you fully open your heart. Your best compatibility is with Scorpio and Pisces risings who understand your emotional depth, and with Taurus rising whose steady nature provides the security you crave. Once bonded, your loyalty is absolute.
